Sara loves to read books. Her favorite place to read is a big, cozy couch in her living room. Today she is reading a new book about space. She opens the book and starts to read about planets and stars.

“I wish I could meet the stars,” she says to her cat, Pussy. Pussy meows and jumps onto her lap.

Sara reads about the Sun, the Moon and the Earth. She learns that the Earth goes around the Sun. She sees the pictures of astronauts and space shuttles.

When she finishes the book, Sara looks out the window at the night sky. She sees the twinkling stars and the bright moon.
